1344. Correspondence received: LALC AGM Saturday 18th November 10am County Hall, Preston; Survey on behalf of NALC completed and submitted. Lancashire County Council Carriageway resurfacing at Hutton Roof Road completed; Neighbourhood Plan invitation to attend meeting in Arkholme Village Hall. Rural Community Network Survey - Growing a Rural Community for Lancashire completed and submitted. Village defibrillator information to be discussed at next meeting. LALC twilight training workshops for Community Engagement and Chairmanship Workshop at Penwortham. Blocked gully at Mackereth Corner reported on FixMyStreet.com with confirmation from Lancashire County Council it will be dealt with shortly. Local Plan Consultation results available at <https://www.lancaster.gov.uk/planning/planning-policy/planning-policy-consultations>.

1345. Business introduced by Councillors: Dog Fouling problem continues to be a problem for parishioner's and visitors alike and was discussed at length. Cllrs are considering the value of waste disposal bins and are putting up signage to discourage dog owners from leaving their dog's waste on view and to dispose of it, bagged, in a nearby bin. Parishioner's strimming the grass around the church are particularly disgusted at the amount of dog faeces that flick up. Parishioner's and visitors can report this, and many other issues at <https://www.fixmystreet.com/>
